

Jennifer Wrobles

Her sultry voice, elegance, and captivating charm will transport your guests to the romantic “Golden Age” of jazz.

Jennifer’s music pays tribute to the legendary song writers throughout the history of jazz: Cole Porter, George Gershwin, Jerome Kern, and Antonio Carlos Jobim, to name a few. She also performs music by contemporary artists such as Sade, and Norah Jones.

Jennifer has quickly gained acclaim for her outstanding vocal talents having won the “Best Young Vocalist Award” from the Georgia Music Hall of Fame. She has performed in concert with Peabo Bryson, Brenda Lee, and Connie Boswell accompanied by the Atlanta Pops Orchestra. She has been a featured entertainer at events throughout Disney World, Sea World, and Universal Studios, as well as hundreds of corporate and special events throughout the tri-state area.

Jennifer performs with her jazz ensemble consisting of keys, upright bass, and drums... A horn section can also be added to create up to a 7 piece ensemble... She also performs as a duo accompanied by piano or jazz guitar.
