

Suzy Park

"Zazu Vocalist"

Suzy Park is a dynamic vocalist whose range and versatility keeps her high in demand. Suzy performs regularly at Disney's EPCOT Center with the a capella jazz ensemble, "American Vybe". She has also performed at numerous jazz clubs and festivals throughout Florida including, the Pleasure Island Jazz Company, Sunfest, and the Lynx Jazz Festival.

She has been a featured soloist with the Orlando Pops Orchestra, and has also performed at the Naples Philharmonic.

Suzy stays extremely active in the recording studio singing for Warner Brothers, Fox, Walt Disney World, Tupperware, and numerous other broadcast production companies.

Born into a musical family, her father and brother played saxophone in the Stan Kenton Orchestra. She began her career in Atlanta, and moved to Orlando in 1990 to perform with Disney's "Voices of Liberty".

Suzy is featured on Yanni's next recording and on her newly released CD, "Soulful Fourcast".
